

Pastor Brown is a Philadelphia native and still resides in the Philadelphia area with his wife and three children. He is a military veteran who served in active duty and in the Pennsylvania Army National Guard as a commissioned officer. He is a proud product of the Philadelphia public school system and has a Bachelor of Science degree from Drexel University and a Masters of Divinity (M.Div.) degree from Biblical Theological Seminary. He also has had a career that extends over twenty five years with the federal government and his expertise has primarily been in Real Estate Management, Design & Construction, and Project Management.

Pastor Brown is a certified biblical counselor, licensed and ordained minister who currently serves as the Assistant Pastor at Living Water Christian Fellowship.

He is one of the founding board members of Community Forgiveness and Restoration and currently serves as the chair of the educational resources committee.

Pastor Brown's life mission is to experience God's best in every area of life and show others how to do the same. One of his favorite verses in Scripture is John 10:10b "...I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly."
